Then the Lord God said, "It is not good for the man to be a-lone; I will make him a help-er suit-a-ble for him."
Out of the ground the Lord God formed ev-er-y beast of the field and ev-er-y bird of the sky, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and what-ev-ev-er the man called a liv-ing crea-ture, that was its name.
The man gave names to all the cattle, and to the birds of the sky, and to every beast of the field, but for A-dam there was not found a help-er suit-a-ble for him.
So the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; then He took one of his ribs and closed up the flesh at that place.

The Lord God fashioned into a woman the rib which He had taken from the man, and brought her to the man.
The man said, "This is now bone of my bones, And flesh of my flesh; She shall be called Wo-man, Be-cause she was tak-en out of Man."

For this rea-son a man shall leave his fath-er and his moth-er, and be joined to his wife; and they shall be-come one flesh.
Now the man called his wife’s name Eve, because she was the mother of all the living.
